NEW CHAIRMAN - Joseph V. Colson of Waveland Monday night was elected to a one-year as chairman of the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission.

Doctor Shortage Bothers Board

Shortage of physicians here and emergency care occupied the bulk of the Hancock General Hospital trustees' meeting Tuesday night when it was finally agreed that the joint conference committee from the board should talk over possible solutions with the medical staff.

Indications are that one new physician will move here in mid-summer and Dr. Frank Schmidt will return from active service with the Army Reserve in August which would ease some of the problems.

Charles Gottschalk, spectator at the session, remarked that the hospital would be the one getting a black name if a patient died in an emergency before the doctor got there. "Maybe you need a public relations deal with the doctors rather than the public," he suggested.

On the motion of T. T. Reboil, Jr., employment of Chappie Anderson of Indianapolis at $450 a month to succeed Palmer Stephens, resigned, as technician, was approved. Administrator Thomas O. Logue said a technician with his certification was needed for accreditation.

Logue reported filling staff vacancies with Grace Horton and Inez Piazza, registered nurses; Elizabeth Mauritz, practical nurse; Donald Moutrey, bookkeeper; and Steve Steffel, orderly. He indicated three or four nurses aides would be hired from the class graduating this week, no more being needed for the time being because of the low patient load. Average was down considerably last month with 15.5 patients per day.

The administrator said he planned to meet Dr. A. K. Martin, Jr., chief of staff, in Jackson yesterday to confer with Foster Fowler, director of the Mississippi Commission on Hospital Care, about expansion of local facilities and then inspect the hospital at Yazoo City.

Three basic suggestions on how we can best prepare for anticipated growth as a result of the Hancock County test facility at Gainesville, the future of Rt. 43 and outlook on job opportunities from the NASA installation were the paramount items covered by Marion Kent, assistant to the deputy associate director of the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, in a talk here Tuesday night.

Kent addressed a sparsely attended meeting of the Hancock County NASA coordinating committee and interested citizens at Bay High School.

He emphasized the need for comprehensive zoning of Bay St. Louis, Waveland and the county as a whole, warning that the bulk of the construction people who move in here "will be out to make a quick dollar and don't care what they leave behind." Next he called on the government to examine closely their financial structure and finally with respect to community facilities declared, "If I lived in Bay St. Louis one of the first things I'd want is a sewage disposal plant."

While the water supply may be adequate, Kent cautioned that heavy sub-division building might make present six-inch mains inadequate. He also urged that subdivision developers be required to provide sidewalks and paved streets rather than expecting the municipalities to build these facilities.

Among minor items he suggested to "dress up the town" was to ease the traffic situation on Main Street by removing parking completely "because people are tired of riding on the curb" or making it one-way.

A round of applause greeted Kent's remarks on the need for a sewage disposal system and Mayor John Seafide, who presided, pledged afterwards that City Commission Council "will do all in our power to expedite a sewage disposal system and adequate water supply for residents."

2 More Sales Are Closed in Testing Area

Two more purchases of property in the NASA test site area have been completed in the last week. O. B. Moore, real estate project office manager for the Army Corps of Engineers which is handling land acquisition for the facility, said yesterday.

Agreements were closed with May Warren for .67 acre and Conley Carver, first to sign an option, for .90 acre. First sale was last week by Mrs. Samantha Keller.

Moore said the corps is continuing to process papers preparatory to closing on other tracts. Appraisal work is still under way in the rest of the test area.

Three representatives from the National Space and Aeronautics Administration are expected to visit the corps office here today. They are Dave Newby, deputy associate director for the Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville; J. T. Shepherd, chief of facilities engineering at MSFC, and Keith Wilde, executive assistant to Dr. George Conant, director of Michoud operations.

SEKS TITLE - Pennie Sue Webre, center, first Miss Bay St. Louis contestant of 1962, signs application as Jaycees, Mesdames Joseph Kern and Russell Elliott look on.

The NASA official announced that commencing May 20 a task group from federal agencies will visit the area to determine community needs and how they can be isolated as a result of the questionnaire sent recently to local governing bodies on their facilities, Sverdrup and Parcel of St. Louis, Mo. which has the architect-engineer contract for the area development planning for the Hancock County Test Facility is now analyzing data supplied to the questionnaire and will prepare a booklet on the findings.

Kent noted that NASA has no authority to make grants or low-interest long term loans. "We are doing one thing," he declared, "we are building the facility in Hancock County." NASA decided against establishing a government community for the test site and felt that the people involved should be absorbed in the surrounding communities. With that in mind, it took the matter to the Washington level to agencies with lending power.

NASA is a civilian agency, he noted, and doesn't tell its people where to live. "The community which wants these people will get the lion's share. . . your people may wish to maintain their status quo or they may recognize these can mean many things to you," Kent continued. "It will take a lot of initiative and work to provide what the newcomers will need to make their homes with you."

As for living quarters for the construction force, Kent asserted that NASA preferred individual enterprise provide this. "We prefer good zoning to cover these operations (trailer parks).

Waveland Town Council Tuesday night unanimously approved issuance of $46,000 in bonds for street improvement. Unless 20 per cent of the town's qualified voters make prior written protest, in 30 days the bonds will be sold to the low bidder.

Both Mayor Garfield Lodner and Alderman Dominick Sander expressed the view that communication by letter might result in the town getting a better price on the bonds, particularly

Bay, Waveland Water Lack Causes Curb

Water, water everywhere and not a drop to drink may be in the offing for Bay St. Louis and Waveland as a result of the dry spell this area has experienced this year.

This week Bay St. Louis put into effect its ordinance prohibiting watering lawns except during the hours 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday night Waveland's Town Council unanimously voted to request its residents to refrain from watering lawns.

According to Commissioner J. Cyril Glover, the city of Bay St. Louis uses the amount of water normally used by a city of 15,000, and recently the water system has had a decided drop in pressure in mid-afternoon. A serious fire, the commissioner said, might have presented a real problem.

Road Goods Bid Goes To Kennedy

The board of supervisors Monday awarded the contract for supplies to construct and improve Bay St. Louis roads to Enoch Kennedy, low bidder, speeded through its claim docket for April and before noon recessed until next Wednesday when bids on the $200,000 bond issue for the best road work are due.

Award of the contract to Kennedy for the road materials was protested by Mylee C. Holcomb Asphalt Co., the proprietor arguing that Kennedy did not have a plant and would simply be buying from Gulf Paving, Inc. Kennedy retorted he would open a plant here in three weeks.

Lucien M. Gen, attorney for the board, ruled that the advertisement for bids offered no latitude for consideration of other factors and since Kennedy was low, he was successful. Gulf Paving's bid was blank so to price.

Sheriff Gerald V. Price presented a request from Carmichael Realty Co. for angular parking around the Courthouse which it claimed would provide 24 spaces each on Gex and Cue Streets and 13 on Court Street by cutting into the grounds some-

134th Notified of Plans for Release

Ft. Chaffee, Ark.—The 134th Transportation Co. (light truck), Army Reserve unit from Bay St. Louis, now on active duty here, has been notified of plans to be released from active duty Aug. 9.

During a major national campaign, Department of the Army said the 134th can be expected to begin its movement from Ft. Chaffee to Bay St. Louis as part of the deactivation of the reserve and National Guard units mobilized last fall. The 134th is a part of the 1st Cavalry Division.

The Army Reserve and National Guard units have been ordered to duty here with four reserve active Army units, supporting and operating the U.S. Army Training Center which they activated along with the post last fall.

Release of the 134th and other units is now possible, Department of the Army reported, because sufficient active Army personnel have been trained to replace them. Permanent Army units are now at the level provided for in the mobilization plan. All personnel were advised that they still have a job to do.

National Hospital Week

GREEN IS THEIR THUMB - The healthy assortment of potted plants which lend cheer to the reception rooms and corridors at Hancock General Hospital are nurtured several times a week by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Porter who have been providing this volunteer service ever since the hospital opened. They take sickly plants to their home at Featon for additional care and replace those lost with new ones.

Water, Water

This week Bay St. Louis has invoked its ordinance prohibiting watering of lawns and similar water uses except during specified hours. Waveland is requesting its residents on the town's water system to limit their use of water.

Bay St. Louis has usually had to invoke its ordinance about the middle of June while Waveland, which has water meters instead of a flat rate, has usually been able to get by without limiting use. The exceedingly dry recent months, and perhaps the municipalities' increased population, has made the difference this year.

The city fathers of the two towns are not acting arbitrarily. We are just using too much water. Bay St. Louis uses about three times as much water as its size would indicate needed, probably because it has a flat rate for water rather than water meters.

In any event, neither community can afford to have its water pressure, and available water, reach a point where a serious fire could not be combated. We should all remember the very recent fire that destroyed C & S Grocery and realize that no matter how cooperative our neighbor towns were in supplying assistance the whole block, and perhaps more, would have been destroyed had Bay St. Louis not had adequate water.

For your OWN sake conform to Bay St. Louis's law and Waveland's request.

Views of Others

And We Love 'Em All

Coast-to-coast, American newspaper editorials cover subjects and problems ranging from the United Nations to precinct constables and from the professions to the glories of some certain month. Each one touches upon some segment of American life and some segment of the people who live that life, but some editorial writers--we plead guilty--seldom, if ever, touch upon their own problems.

Only a saving sense of humor wittily sustains the sanity of editors and their reporters after listening for years to such remarks as these from the thousand with whom they come in contact:

- "Why don't you put my name in the paper?"
- "Don't quote me, but,"
- "I'll sue you."
- "I 's misquoted."
- "You ran a three-column picture when the senator's daughter was married and only a two-column one when my daughter was married."
- "Why don't you put my name in the paper?"
- "Please don't print the price on the building permit for my house. It shows $9,000 and I have told my friends...."
- "You're going to take my PICTURE? Goodness, my hair's a MESS."
- "The 4-H club my son belongs to will elect officers next Thursday night and we want a reporter there."
- "Why don't you put my name in the paper?"
- "You can get a free meal if you attend our meeting and write it up."
- "Why don't you blast those board members out of office in your paper? They're all crooks and you know it."
- "I'll show you, I'll cancel my subscription."
- "Your newspaper is too Democratic."
- "Your newspaper is too Republican."
- "Your newspaper never takes a stand."
- (We'll go along with this one when the shoe fits. The newspaper that doesn't take stands is not a good community utility).
- "Why don't you put my name in the paper?"
- "When the mayor broke his leg you ran a story about it. Why didn't you put it in the paper when I injured my finger-nails?"
- "So you're a newspaperman. I used to be one, too. I sold the old Oshkosh back in the 90's."
- "Your paper takes sides."
- "I wouldn't use your dirty sheet to cover the floor of my wife's bird cage."
- "Why don't you put my name in the paper?"

Airport Again Our Readers Write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

For the past several weeks there has been an exchange of letters appearing in your newspaper between former president of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors Ed P. Orrie, and R. G. Hubbard, now president of the board.

Unfortunately, my files on the airport project have long been destroyed. However, if I may be allowed to write from memory, the following are my recollections:

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has expressed a desire to have a landing strip near Bay St. Louis. Because of this fact, the authorities at Keeler Air Force base at our request very obligingly sent over several pieces of heavy equipment including a bulldozer and a crew of men to clear the runway. This required two or three days time. After the stumps had been cleared then came the problem of the fill and the leveling work.

The Board of Supervisors had already been contacted about the strip because it was to be a joint city-county project. Again I must rely on my memory but I am sure that I spoke with Mr. Orrie about the fill and the leveling. As a result of this talk the county pulled all of their equipment in from the outlying districts, the fill was brought with it, and the leveling was done.

And so I must take issue with Mr. Hubbard's statement which appeared in your April 19, 1962, issue of the Echo. His road and bridge crew definitely did not clear the runway. It was cleared by the men and equipment from Keeler Air Force base. And it is also my recollection that all of my dealings with the Board of Supervisors regarding the airport project were with Mr. Orrie and the other members of the Board of Supervisors who were in office during his term as its president.

Yours very truly,
WARREN CARVER

"There's nothing in your paper." (Perhaps this person would like to read about his, or her, son or daughter having murdered some one or having been murdered. Maybe that would be "something").

"To heck with those FFA, 4-H, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girl stories. I don't belong to any of them."

"Why don't you put my name in your paper?"

And, finally, that one that was worn out in the 80's and 90's and since then has become downright disgusting:

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen then took up for consideration the matter of the issuance of Forty-six Thousand Dollars ($46,000) Street Improvement Bonds of the Town of Waveland, Mississippi, and, following a discussion of the subject, Alderman Dominic Sander offered and moved the adoption of the following resolution:

A RESOLUTION DECLARING THE INTENTION OF THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN OF THE TOWN OF WAVELAND, MISSISSIPPI, TO ISSUE NEGOTIABLE BONDS OF THE SAID TOWN IN THE MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF FORTY-SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS ($46,000) TO RAISE MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING THE COST OF CONSTRUCTING, IMPROVING AND PAVING STREETS IN SAID TOWN.

We will furnish a good facility. What concerns us is will you be proud of what is outside the gates... we've seen too many shack towns on the edge of government installations where the workers have deserved good high class living facilities."

On the highway question, Kent said NASA rumors to the contrary, is not interested in relocation of Interstate 10 which will cross the lower part of the easement area and may help serve the test site. Lane concerns access for transporting by barge the rocket engines 35 feet in diameter from the Michoud plant where they will be built.

Before Rt. 43 is sealed off by the test site it will be replaced "in equal kind over the most economical route," he continued. Studies on relocation and information is now in the hands of the Mississippi Highway Department which will come up with its suggestion.

Turning to the employment picture, he estimated 600 construction people will be working at the test site by the end of December with 3,700 at the end of 1963 and the major part of the building due for completion by mid-1964. These people will be looking for rentals and trailers. The number of government employees will be small, he said. NASA figures on 60 but he believes this is conservative and the total probably will be double that. In addition there will be support services contractors for maintenance and housekeeping and some technical functions.

The testing firms also will have their employees. Displaying the new brochure on the facility prepared by NASA he noted that "what is the thinking today may be changed tomorrow in a field like this." In these categories there will be an estimated 1,500 people working at the site.

More than 2,000 leaflets outlining the hospital's facilities and accomplishments over the past are being distributed in local grocery stores this week, inviting the public to attend the open house from 3 to 5 p.m. Friday, according to Administrator Thomas O. Logue.

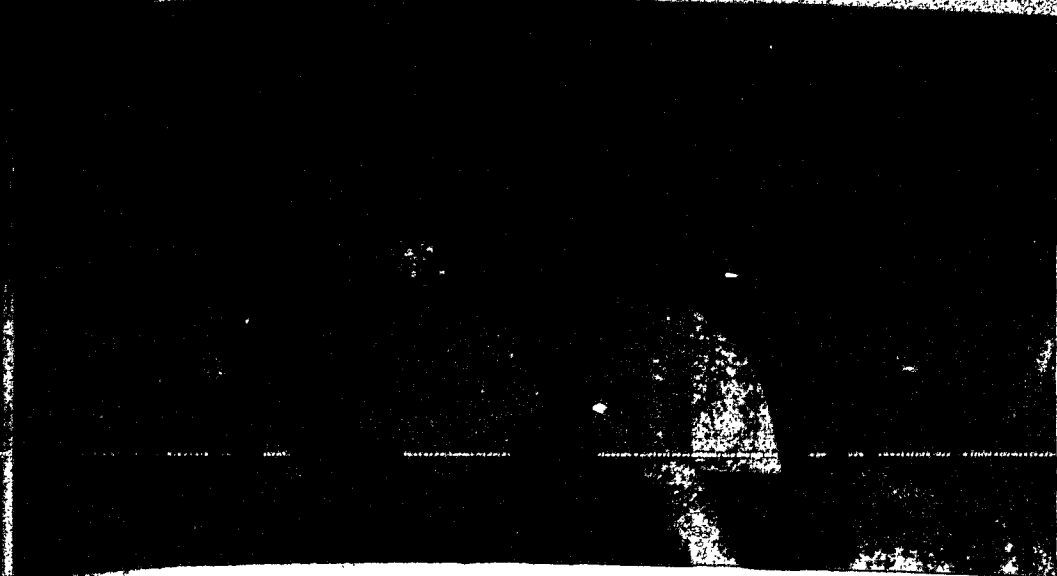

Theme of Hospital Week this year is Your Hospital Uniting Science and Patient Care. "Scientific equipment will never replace the personal care and attention of dedicated hospital people," Logue noted. "Hancock General Hospital will continue to strive to provide personal and individual services necessary for each patient's comfort and well being."

Mrs. Mark Gowen, retiring president, presented in behalf of the P-TA a potted plant to Mrs. Ethel Zengaring who is retiring from teaching at the end of the year.

Donald Caldwell, Bay High principal, presented tokens of appreciation to the patrol boys continued in reply to another question. Asked how the county might get some of the industries supplying the site to locate here, he observed, "I think you've got as much on your hands right now as you can handle."

As the question period neared its conclusion, John McDonald, local business leader, suggested that Kent return to Hattiesburg and inform the people "this little town is enthusiastic and we want your people here. We've done an awful lot in a short time to get ready."

RESOLUTION OF COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD ON PROPOSED USE OF 16th SECTION LAND FOR AIRPORT

Moved by Mr. Ortiz, Seconded by Mr. Powell the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS it has been brought to the attention of this Board that there has been some discussion by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, relative to building an airfield on Section 16, Township 9 South, Range 14 West, and,

WHEREAS, it is the opinion of this Board that if such an airfield were built, that it would remove from the sources of revenue a valuable asset, which has been set aside to provide income for the education of the children of Hancock County, and,

WHEREAS, due to the noise and other inconveniences incident to the operation of such airfield that property values adjacent to said airfield and even extending into the Town of Waveland would be depreciated, thereby possibly reducing the revenues available for the education of school children, and

WHEREAS, it is deemed more feasible to have such airfield located in an area where land values are low and injury would not occur to the revenues necessary for the operation of the School System of Hancock County;

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved that this Board go on record opposing the location of an airfield on Section 16, Township 9 South, Range 14 West, making it clear, however, that said Board does not oppose the enlarging of the present airfield or the building of a new and larger airfield at a place more convenient to the general public.

The foregoing resolution was unanimously carried. (adv.)

Bay High Chorus Presents Mikado

The poetic music of Gilbert and Sullivan, enriched by the gaiety of a Japanese setting, features the The Mikado, an opera in two acts, to be presented by the Bay High School chorus at 8 p.m. Friday in the school auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Toy Tedford.

The opera, complete with comedy and song, takes place in the courtyard of the Lord High Executioner of the Japanese town of Titipu. The story concerns Ko-Ko, the executioner who "can't even kill a fly" but who is ordered by the Mikado, ruler of the land, to perform an execution within a month's time.

The cast includes Davey Smith as the Mikado; Sam Allison as Ko-Ko; Sam Cuevas as Nanki-Poo, son of the Mikado, Penny Sue Webre as Yum-Yum, a young maiden with whom Nanki-Poo falls in love; Lana Taylor as Katisha, an elderly lady who in turn is in love with Nanki-Poo; Pat Goodsell as Pitti-Sing and Janet Strong as Peep-Bo, sisters of Yum-Yum; Doyle Larkin as Fish-Tush, a noble lord, and Walter Villere as Pooh-Bah, holder of many high offices in the state.

The complete boys' and girls' choruses, totaling 55 voices will be included in the performance of The Mikado, which was first produced at Bay High 37 years ago. This is the first time the school chorus group has presented an opera.

The public is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Get well wishes to our friends, Gertrude Robertson, his Jordan, Mercedes Spahr, R. S. Ladner, of Beaumont, Tex., who is recuperating in Lakeshore from a recent operation; Louis Wenzel, who was rushed to N.O. for consultation with his doctor, but is OK again. It is a pleasure to welcome Margie Kemp back to Clermont. Her two daughters, Margie and Mary Lou, were among the group of girls here who boarded the L&N Friday to join in with the group from St. Joseph's Academy of Bay St. Louis. Under the supervision of two sisters of the Academy they, with hundreds of other school children along the Mississippi Coast went in to N.O. to greet President Kennedy on his visit there. Others enjoying the trip were Ann Proctor, Patsy Brown, Peggy Garcia, Kathleen Klein, Claudia Klein, Cheryl Ming and several others.

Hot Show Is May 21

There will be much writhing of brows until May 21, which is the date of the Blue Jeans annual hat show. There are six classes this year - small, large, original, funny, dried and anything goes. It will take place at the home of Mrs. J. Bordages in Lakeshore at 2 p.m. A benefit will be given Saturday, May 19, at the Clermont-Lakeshore Youth Center in honor of the young John Klein's baby daughter, Cindy, whose hospital bills since birth 2 1/2 months ago are staggering. Her illness is due to a condition known as broncho-colitis. Go join in the games that little Cindy may one day be able to participate in and help another. Another little girl ill for 2 1/2 months, is Sherill Ladner of Lakeshore, daughter of the Forest Ladners, now reported on the road to recovery. Mercedes Spahr keeps bringing Mrs. Garcia such delectables as kiss pudding and pecan pie, and Ruth Landry phoned Friday warning her to not eat lunch as she was bringing her some crawfish bisque and nothing is richer - when, there goes Mrs. C's diet all shot to pieces.

The Fred Bunsons, who built a home on Lower Bay Road last summer have done a clever camouflaging by covering their electric pump with the guise of a wishing well. Their 18 year old son aboard the USS Springfield in the Mediterranean feels like March, 1963, is far far away. It was nice seeing Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Rumels of Gulfport at the grocery the other day; the blood clot that gave him so much concern has cleared at last.

HD Club Plans Display

Members of the home demonstration club will meet at the Forest St. home of Mrs. J. C. Goodloe Monday to discuss plans for the exhibition of members' handwork which will, through the courtesy of Mr. Delph, be displayed in his store windows May 21-24. Recent guests of the Frank Simmons were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Purdy of New Orleans. Others dropping in for a visit were Miss Edna and Miss Mae Duverney, also of New Orleans and the Richard Burtons from N. O. and across the street came in both Saturday and Sunday for chats. Saturday George Simmons fixed little Suse Yost her favorite weekend food - wieners and sauerkraut because her parents were so busy cleaning and painting her swimming pool. Sunday night the gang celebrated Suse's birthday although it wasn't until next day, May 7.

station, the repair men were unable to determine the cause of her troubles, so she yanked the wires herself and proceeded to a department store only to discover that her wallet was missing as she was making a purchase. After much searching, it was found under the car, money removed of course. She still had the medical appointment to contend with - arrived at the office on time, but protested violently when the nurse started to prepare her for surgery - a mistake in cards. Needless to say, she was more than a little relieved when she reached home safely.

Jimmy Lagasse picked up not only a number of blackberries last week, but an even larger number of chiggers, commonly known as redbugs.

Complaint

This probably won't do much good as tourists are the worst offenders, but it will at least give us a little relief to gripe - the subject is sightseers who proceed on Beach Blvd. at about five mph letting their cars veer this way and that as they scan the horizon. If you must gaze at the landscape, please pull to the side of the road and enjoy the view.

On the Avenue

Kary Goodwin and Pat Smith discussing the beauty business; Harry Hite, whom we're quite certain must positively be the only remaining summer resident with broken pipes; Clarence Connell soaking up the morning sunshine; Ann Langley driving papa Slim Jenkins' new car and Phyl Lagasse dashing to the new Coleman Ave. office.

Legion Auxiliary Fetes VA Patients

The American Legion auxiliary entertained 99 patients from Ward F1 at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Gulfport Monday, serving refreshments and playing games. A bouquet of spring flowers was provided by Mrs. Ruth Ruesha.

Attending from here were Mesdames John W. Wilkerson, Jr., Lena Cuevas, Leontine Ziegler, Rene Bermond, Henry Capdepon, Eddie Virgilio, assisted by Mesdames Luther Ruble, Helen Gladney and Mary Brandreth of Gulfport.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD BERTRAM BORDAGES

Bordages-O'Farrell Vows Said at Clermont Church

Clermont Harbor Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding at 3 p.m. Saturday of Miss Eleanor Jeanette O'Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Farrell of Lakeshore, to Harold Bertram Bordages, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bordages, also of Lakeshore. Rev. Doyle L. Larkin, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar banked with arrangements of white calla lilies and mums against a background of ferns.

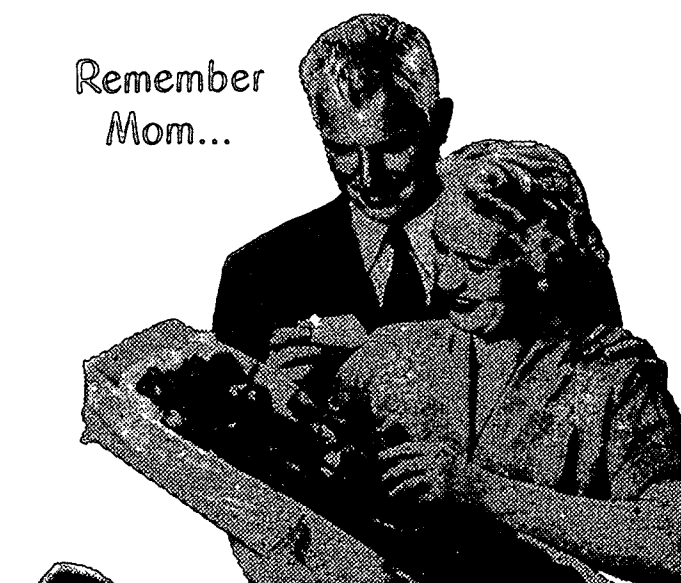

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz length gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of lace and a bouffant skirt of white chiffon. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white mums centered with an orchid. Her only jewelry was a pearl pendant, gift of the groom.

Miss Caroline Maurigi, cousin of the bride and maid of honor, wore a pale blue embroidered nylon frock with a fitted bodice and full skirt and a blue cummerbund. Mrs. Donald Lustich, matron of honor for her sister, was in a dress of white embroidered nylon over pink, fashioned like that of the maid of honor and with a pink cummerbund. Their headpieces were of

LOOK WHAT'S HAPPENED TO THE OLD WATER WELL

Mostly it has been filled with rocks and tin cans. But the water well, or it's cousin, the spring, was as necessary as stovewood a few years ago.

Working and investing together, however, Mississippi people established Electric Power Associations through which they could supply themselves with electricity. Electric pumps and complete water systems for the farm, home and industry became a reality rather than a dream.

Without these Electric Power Associations, a majority of Mississippi's people living outside city limits would still be turning the windlass crank, pushing a pump handle or trudging to the spring for water. With them, they have made an investment for the future... each member of an Electric Power Association is a part-owner. Each time he pays his electric bill he is repaying a portion of a loan which made his association possible. And while he is repaying the loan, with interest, he is enjoying the conveniences electricity made possible.

The old "dug well" has been replaced by a slender hole in the ground topped by a quite-run-ning electric pump. As a result, there is an ample supply of water for kitchen, bath and farm. That's what's happened to the old water well.

of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Moran of U.S. 90 and Lakeshore Road will be a contestant in the coming Miss Bay St. Louis Contest. Regina, a lovely brunette, has won a number of honors along this line. Several years ago she won first place in St. Joseph's Catholic Church beauty contest in Gulfport, La., for the entire La. Fourche Parish. After that Regina placed first in the Miss Gulf Coast Contest, on the grounds of St. John's Catholic Church in Lakeshore. The next year she was home show queen at Gulfview Arena. Regina will enter Auburn University in Auburn, Ala., this coming fall. She is a graduate of Gulfview elementary school, Bay High and has attended PRJC for one year. At the recent St. Joseph's Academy Ball, Regina was a lady in waiting.

Eleanor O'Farrell and Harold Borgeades had a lovely wedding Saturday afternoon at Clemont Methodist Church. So many well wishers came they had to stand outside the church. A reception was held in fellowship hall following the double ring ceremony. Later on open house was held in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Borgeades. The couple's gifts were on display for all to admire. After many toasts and well wishes the young couple left for a Florida honeymoon.

Wednesday, May 23, is Gulfview graduation. The program will start at 7:30 p.m. All parents and relatives are cordially invited. Friday the eighth grade class spent the day at Bay High School.

50 YEARS TOGETHER - Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bourgeois celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Leonard Street May 2 with a few close friends and relatives joining them for the occasion after the couple renewed their vows at Our Lady of the Gulf Church with Rev. Michael Kelly officiating. Mrs. Bourgeois is the former Miss Amanda Leduc of Kln. They have one daughter, Mrs. Edward Kimmel, Jr.

Teen times

Boxing was one of the leading weekend attractions, Stanislaus' gym was crowded with rooters. Local boys did well against stiff competition from St. Mary's CVO of New Orleans. Winners were Stanley Weidman, Gary Marquar, Sidney Sandoz, Michael Fayard, Johnny Favre, Larry and Donnie Bilbo, and Pete Peterson. Decisions went against Orville Ferrell, Rusty Asher, Herbie Cholina and Donald Marquar. Frank Barteloff, who was victorious in his last match, had no competitor in the latest fight.

Also on the sport front—little leaguers turned up in considerable numbers at McDonald Field Saturday a.m., but it was decided to begin regular practice after school closes. Contracts are now being signed by girls and boys in the 15 years and over division. The first softball tournament of the season drew a large attendance. 10 teams met at the city field Sunday, May 6. Industrial Electric has been added to teams playing in this league. The initial meet is held to obtain funds for equipment for the teams.

Christy Torgersen, Louise Bufkin and Gloria Lombardo were among those selected to attend Girl's State in Jackson in June. This year plans have been made to hold meetings giving the girls a few tips on political maneuvers, as the girls are eligible to run for "state offices" during the meeting. Gail Stewart is Gloria's alternate.

Congratulations to Jo Ann McCullough and John D. Rutherford, who received Eagle of the Cross awards at the CVO convention last week. They were two of nine selected from approximately 1,000 members in attendance. St. Stanislaus held their first band concert in several years in the SJA gym Monday night. We have it on good authority that Albert Brignac is one member of this organization who practiced diligently.

Burch Henley is now a member of the U. S. Navy. He's taking basic training in San Diego, Calif. Jimmy Mayfield is keeping his football muscles in trim working on the new Postoffice. He'll enter the University of Southern Mississippi next term. As winter howling leagues enter the home stretch we're forced to comment that the SEA COAST ECHO team is leading the Lone Lubbers, and A. J. Foods, Borgeades Fishing Camp and Mont-Carver appear to be headed for a playoff in the Gutter.

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Michael Johnson of New Orleans were guests on Monday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bader of New Orleans spent the weekend at their home on Water Street.

Accreditation Meaning Told HGH Auxiliary

What the recent accreditation won by Hancock General Hospital means was explained by Administrator Thomas O. Logan when the women's auxiliary met Monday morning with Mrs. Leo Seal, president, presiding. Mrs. B. J. Peters led the devotional. Logan suggested that auxiliary members inform the public, whenever possible of the accreditation achievement and encourage their friends and neighbors to use the modern facilities of the local hospital when in need of medical attention.

He reported on the Southeastern Hospital Conference in New Orleans last month and reminded members of the blood drawing next Wednesday from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Youth Center. Plans were completed for the local observance of National Hospital Week in the form of open house from 3 to 5 p.m. Friday at the hospital. Auxiliary members will serve refreshments and assist visitors on tours of the building. On the refreshment committee are Madeline Henry Chapman, Albert Kushn and E. K. Hammond.

Bay St. Louis managed to win only two of six fights in the weight classes under 100 pounds, but made a rout of the heavier divisions, winning all six of the above-100-pound matches.

Other winning fights for the locals:

Rock Nine Drop Pair

St. Stanislaus Rockchaws, continuing to run up against the best teams in the area, dropped two baseball decisions last week. The Rocks lost 9-2 to Notre Dame Friday afternoon in Biloxi and were blanked 6-0 by Gulfport Wednesday.

Friday Stanislaus took a 1-0 lead in the first inning, but couldn't put another man across the plate until the seventh and final frame. Notre Dame, held to one run through the first four innings by the pitching of freshman left-hander Curtis Matherne, broke the game open in the fifth with five runs on a combination of hits, walks, and errors, and increased the margin with three runs in the sixth before Stanislaus got their final run in the seventh.

The Rocks collected seven hits, with John Saravjan the only player to get two safe blows. Nodie Ladner, Mike Gore, Waymon Carr, Doc Rhodes, and Matherne went all the way on the mound, allowing only seven hits, but he walked five, and most of these were together in the big Notre Dame fifth.

Stanislaus could connect for only one base hit last Wednesday. A pair of righthanders, Ted Miller and Irving Favre, shared pitching duties for Gulfport, and besides allowing but one hit between them, they fanned 10 Rockchaw batsmen.

First baseman Juan De-dianous was the only Stanislaus batter to hit safely. Mike Gore was the losing pitcher, hurling three innings and allowing five of the six Gulfport runs. Louis Pastor pitched the final three frames for Coach Buddy Pitolo's nine, giving up one run.

boxers won were:

Johnny Laine over Rusty Asher, Ronnie Penida over Orville

Gulf Coast Express To Sponsor Team In Little League

One new sponsor has been added to the Bay St. Louis Little League, according to Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairman of the Parks and Playgrounds Commission, but there is still need for three sponsors for the G. C. Softball League, for ages 10-15.

To date there are about 60 girls who have announced their intention of playing this summer, 22 of whom have signed in the last week, and there is only one sponsor, Dan M. Russell, for the league.

The new sponsor for the Little League is Gulf Coast Express.

BWYC Sailing Races Start at Weekend

The sailing season at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club will start this weekend, Commodore K. W. Pepperdine announces.

The GP-14 boats will race at 2 p.m. Saturday and at 2 and 4 p.m. Sunday. Fish boat races also are slated.

Mrs. Kimball Sets Woman's Alley High

Mrs. Buck Kimball scored the highest game ever posted by a woman at Bay Bowling Center with a 242 game in the Misses' League play last Wednesday night.

The previous record was held by Mrs. James Pfeiffer with a 229. Miss Kimball is the former Miss Jeanette Monti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monti.

Ferrell, Mike Wolfnorth over Har-bie Cholna (all 75 lbs.); Vic Le-Blanc over Donald Marquar (95 lbs.).

The event were sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Sidelinas Club and attended by a large crowd.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that—

IN MISSISSIPPI, Federal ships raided Biloxi and Pass Christian during April, 1862 from a base established at Fort Massachusetts on Ship Island.

Then, at now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southern hospitality to any occasion. Mississippians have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety in beer and ale are served.

Harry Hears... Stars in Spring Sports

High school baseball and track seasons involving local teams are either finished or rapidly coming to a close. Of the two local schools participating in the two sports, St. Stanislaus turned out the best individual athlete of the spring and Bay High came up with the best team.

Bay High baseballers racked up 4-3 and 6-5 decisions over Ocean Springs Thursday and Tuesday to back into the Gulf Coast Conference baseball championship in high fashion. Coach Lance Lumpkin's Tigers, with only one senior on the squad, looked to be in bad shape after being beaten badly in Bay St. Louis last week by Pass Christian, but bounced back with a hard-fought win over Ocean Springs in Ocean Springs Thursday, and had to go into extra innings to win Tuesday afternoon's deciding game here.

The Tigers have a 4-2 record while Ocean Springs is 3-2, one game with Pass Christian having been rained out. That will be made up Friday and if Ocean Springs wins, they and Bay High will be declared co-champions.

Colden-Jones of Stanislaus continues to impress everyone in track events. After winning the district A-AA 440-yard run in Gulfport last week, Jones this past week claimed first in the South Mississippi A-AA 440-yard run. He also placed in the 220-yard dash, and a teammate, Waldo Caceres, finished fifth among the best in the southern part of the state in the 880-yard run.

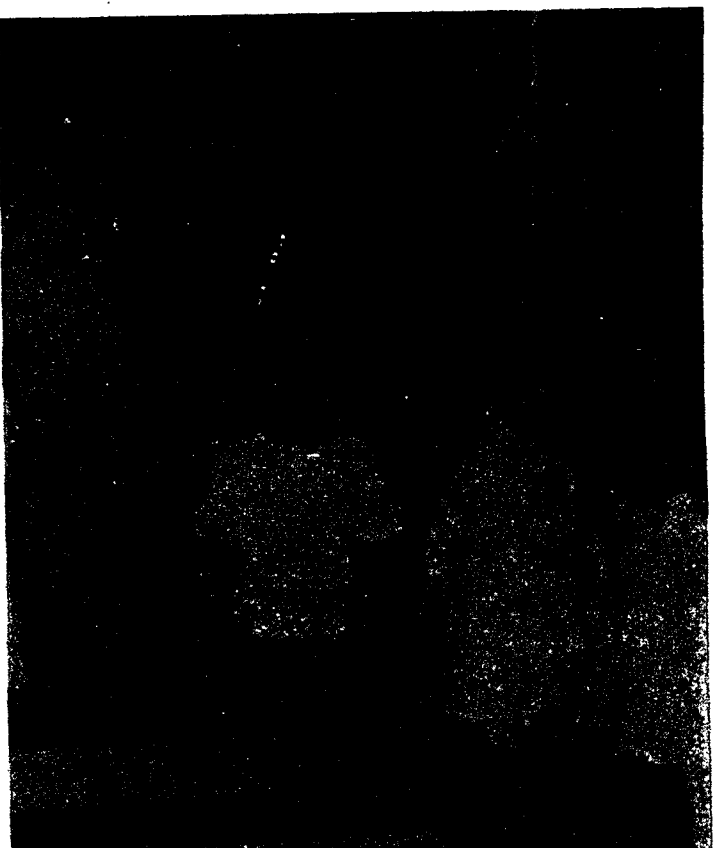

In a sport which doesn't rank as one of the top local athletic attractions, Junior Richard Schaefer of Bay High showed up well, winning the boys' singles championship of the Gulf Coast Conference last week. He beat Pass Christian's Kenny Fike in the finals. Bay High hasn't, to our knowledge, had a net team in many years, and we believe Schaefer was the lone Bay High student to play in the tennis tourney.

Southern Realty showed notice Sunday that they are the team to beat in the Bay Softball League this summer. Combining hitting and pitching, Southern beat Trepani in the finals of the annual pre-season tournament. It looks as if their roughest opposition will come from Trapani and Reintke. The league season starts May 28 and if Sunday's tourney is any example, there should be some good interesting softball played this summer at the local diamond.

Bay St. Louis boxers, coached by Buck Price, showed up surprisingly well in their matches against St. Mary's CVO of New Orleans Friday at Stanislaus gym, winning eight out of 12 bouts. Ronnie Peterson, ace of the local boxing club, really gave his opponent, a veteran of many matches, a sound beating. The matches again were a success - we should and probably will have more of them in Bay St. Louis.

St. Mary's director Whitney Esmeault said in New Orleans Wednesday that an invitation will be extended the local boxers to appear in a televised program within a month.

The local sailing season is underway. In the Gulf Yachting Assn. opening regatta at NOYC last weekend, Bay sailors didn't fare too well, but when the summer is fully here, they'll be right in there.

Herbert C. Lazebny, associate rector of Trinity Church in Seattle, Wash., will discuss ministry to the aged, a program he founded.

Russell Edward Elliott has returned from Jackson where he was the guest of Rep. Clarence Laddie while serving as a page in the House of Representatives. While there he visited Gov. Ross Barnett in his offices.
